

Stirling Skills Training has been announced as one of the first successful Transition to Work service providers.

The Transition to Work services is part of the Australian Government's Youth Employment Strategy.

Stirling Skills Training is proud to be providing this service in the Perth North and South region.

Please click here for locations and site contacts.

You can email us at ttwenquiries@stirlingskills.com.au for any further information

